NEW BUSINESS

A. PRESENTATION

1. LARRY MORAN 2011 EXCELLENCE AWARD

Commissioner Johnson explained that the Larry Moran Excellence Award was established in 2009 and is given in memory of former Planning Commissioner and Chairman Larry Moran who passed away several years ago. Commissioner Moran had served on the Planning Commission for over thirteen years and had served as Chairman for many of those years. He served the citizens of Gautier by volunteering his time in many ways. Commissioner Johnson further explained that the award was given to a business or individual for achievement in job creation, community contributions, customer service, adherence to Planning and Zoning Ordinances and retail excellence.

Commissioner Wooten presented a plaque to Beverly Randle, owner of Baywood Commons, as winner of the 2011 Larry Moran Excellence Award. Ms. Randle thanked the Planning Commission for the award.

Mr. Moran's family was asked to stand and a bouquet of flowers were presented to Mr. Moran's widow.
