Gautier Antique Fair Vendor Spaces Still Available

American Pickers spin-off production will be filming

Vendor spaces for the Gautier Antique Fair scheduled for Sunday, March 11th are still available. The City of Gautier has been chosen as a filming site for a spin off production of the History Channel's "American Pickers." The new show, "Picked Off," is the synthesis of "American Pickers" and "The Amazing Race." Four teams will race through the Gautier Antique Fair in order to discover "finds." Both serious and casual antique collectors are encouraged to participate with a booth. The event will be held at La Maison Gautier (otherwise known as The Old Place) from 10:00 am until 6:00 p.m.

Some of the items the teams may look for include old toys, movie posters, movie memorabilia, sports equipment, NASCAR memorabilia, 60's and 70's merchandise, Elvis memorabilia, cast iron, pottery, civil war antiques, wood carvings, and old signs. All items must be for sale. A limited number of slots are available for craft vendors. Admission to the event for spectators is free. Only vendors may park on-site but free shuttle service will be provided from Singing River Mall for festival attendees.

Antique shopping, food, children's area, IP overnight casino stay contest, Bacot McCarty $1,000.00 scholarship opportunity, and entertainment ensure fun for everyone.
