RE: Promoting the history of Gautier

Dear Mrs. Able:

On behalf of the Gautier Historic Preservation Commission, I request a few moments on the City Council's agenda for the meeting on Tuesday, June 5, to present information on a prominent person in the history of Gautier. That person is Governor John J. McRae, whose family moved to what is now Gautier when he was eleven, and went on to hold various important positions in the state and federal government, including serving as governor a few years prior to the Civil War.

If this request meets with approval, please advise me at 327-4483 (cell), or by mail at 1225 Stanfield Point Road, Gautier, MS 39553, or email at SuperReb@cableone.net.

Sincerely,

Raymond L. Brown
